Hello Rooms101.com,

Thank you again for understanding the gravity of the situation with my son last summer. After much rehabilitation and procedures, he through the grace of God is healing just fine. We would like to reschedule our weekend visit to your establishment. Is there anyone I'll need to contact in order to move forward? July 1st and 2nd are ideally but July 8th and 9th, would work as well.

Thanks

Mr Johnson,

We are working on changing your package to and open package. We will send more details once we get response from the resort. We wish you son the best and hope for a speedy and complete recovery.
